About AIMS&RC: Ananta Institute of Medical Sciences & Research Centre (AIMS) is a nonprofit Charitable Medical Institution, pledged to the service of the community, catering to the healthcare needs of the people in general and especially to the needy, underprivileged, suffering section of humanity in particular. It provides a wide spectrum of medical, Surgical and other support services including specialty and super-specialty care. It is the only hospital in entire district of Rajsamand for providing Tertiary Medical Care facilities. The College and Hospital complex has been raised in an area of 24 acres, ideally located with salubrious surroundings. It is provided with state of art infrastructure in term of its blocks of buildings, Highly qualified and experienced staff, well-equipped laboratories, library, modern teaching aids and the hospital with huge patient flow, thus exposing students to various Medical and Surgical conditions are major highlights of the Institute.

About Rajasthan Technical Library Association (RTLTA): The Rajasthan Technical Library Association was established on May 28, 2010, under the Rajasthan Non Trading Company Act, 1960. An executive council of twenty one members was elected wherein a constitution for the association was approved. Membership for the Association is been provided as Annual and Life time with nominal fees.

About Udaipur: Often referred to as the 'Venice of the East', the lake city of Udaipur is known as the centre for performing arts and crafts. The famous Lake Palace, located in the middle of Lake Pichola is one of the most beautiful sights of Udaipur. Udaipur is also home to Jaisamand Lake, the largest artificial lake in Asia. The beautiful City Palace and Sajjan Garh (Monsoon Palace) add to the architectural beauty and grandeur of the city. The solar observatory in Udaipur is known as one of the best in Asia. Udaipur was founded in 1559 by Maharana Udai Singh II as a new capital of the Mewar kingdom. It is located in the fertile, circular Girwa Valley to the southwest of Nagda, which was the first capital of Mewar. Until Udaipur was built, the capital of Mewar was Ahar, a flourishing trade town.

About Rajsamand : Rajsamand is a district of Indian state Rajasthan; it was carved out from the erstwhile district of Udaipur established on 10th April, 1991, and named after the famous artificial lake "Rajsamand" built by Maharana Raj Singh. Rajsamand the most rich district regarding history, religion, culture and mining includes Kumbhalgarh - the birth place of Maharana Pratap, Haldighati the famous battle field - the Thermopile, Dewair the Marathon of Mewar with Shrinathji the chief deity of Vaishnav religion besides Dwarikadheesh, Charbhuja and many Shiv temples.
